

Date:	6 June 2022
Recruitment of a local Indigenous artist to complete project
Background	South Gippsland Hospital wish to engage the services of a local Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander artist to create an outdoor installation, representative of the traditional custodians of the land on which the hospital is sited.
Intent/purpose	SGH is committed to improve the health and well-being of our first nations people by creating a health service that is safe, accessible, welcoming and inclusive to all and by valuing the culture and identity of all individuals within our community. The intention of the works is to communicate a deep respect for the land on which the hospital is located and to provide local community, staff, patient and visitors with a rich, culturally appropriate environment to enjoy. The work/s may be a single display, such as a mural or sculpture or a series of items such as painted totems or smaller sculptures or similar.
Scope	The location of the art works is to be outdoors within the native garden site between Jones Street Foster and the main hospital building. The Art Installation should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reflect elements representing the traditional custodians of this area, • demonstrate features of healing and be appropriate for a healthcare setting, • engage local community if possible, • be permanent and • be able to be installed to completion within budget.
Budget	$3,000.00
Application timeline	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expression of Interest opens Thursday 16 June, closing Friday 8 July 2022 • Local indigenous artists from Bass Coast or South Gippsland are invited to submit to South Gippsland Hospital a brief concept design for an appropriate outdoor art installation • Designs should include a brief description of works, sketch/drawings and any other information to support the application and a brief outline of how timelines and budget will be met • Design applications should be submitted to SGH via email to Samantha.park@sghs.com.au or mail to PO Box 104, Foster VIC 3960 • Applications must be received by close of business (COB) Friday 8 July 2022 • Selected artist will be notified of their successful tender by 22 July 2022. • Once the successful artist has been selected, a service agreement will be negotiated, agreed and approved and a signed contract established before work/s are to proceed.
Installation timeline	Art work/s to be completed and installed by 31 Aug 2022 or by mutual agreement
Further information	Samantha Park, Samantha.park@sghs.com.au ; mobile: 0428 391 700

The South Gippsland Hospital site, corner Jones Street and Station Road, Foster, 3960:

