ORGANISATIONAL VALUES

South Gippsland Hospital (SGH) staff work with each other according to the Values listed below and the behaviours these values require when carrying out business. These values are:

Accountability – accepting responsibility for our actions

Trust- acting with integrity and being able to count on each other

Excellence – doing our best at all times and looking for ways to improve

Adaptability – being flexible and accepting of new ideas and change for the better

Mutual Respect – treating others in the way that want to be treated

It is expected that staff will work according to these Values when working directly with other staff, clients and members of the community.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

SGH recognises its obligation for full compliance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 and associated Occupation Health and Safety regulations 2017. All staff are required:

- to comply with safety instructions in their work environment and to familiarise themselves with OH&S procedures.
- to take reasonable care of their own health and safety as well as that of other people who may be affected by their conduct in the workplace.
- to seek guidance about new or modified work procedures.
- to ensure that any hazardous conditions are eliminated or minimised and that near misses and injuries are reported immediately to their supervisor.

If the role includes people management duties, these include the requirement to manage the health and safety of people under this control and support the actions contained in SGH OH&S policies.

INFECTION PREVENTION AND CONTROL

An effective, integrated organisation-wide Infection Prevention and Control Program is dependent upon the support, recognition, motivation, commitment and integrity of every staff member.

All staff members have a responsibility to maintain infection prevention and control knowledge levels commensurate with the requirements of the position, and to adhere to the organisation's Infection Prevention and Control policies and procedures at all times.

LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT

SGH is committed to education.

All staff have a responsibility to undertake their own professional development and actively participate in the learning and development of others. This may involve colleagues, health professionals from other disciplines or students. Inter-professional education is strongly encouraged and supported and is integral to a small rural hospital

HEALTH AND WELLBEING

The health and wellbeing of employees is a priority for SGH and the importance of an environment that promotes and nurtures the physical, mental, emotional and social wellbeing of all individuals is recognised in this workplace.
